

LONG ASHTON HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Invite you to a presentation & talk

'Embracing Your Wild Side'

*A personal look at the history of naturalistic gardening
From a medieval refuge to a wildlife friendly garden*

by Amanda Barrett of The LANCE Trust on Tuesday 8th October from

7.15 – 9.30pm

at

The Jubilee Pavilion

Keedwell Hill, Long Ashton, BS41 9DP

The root of the word 'garden' comes from the Old English 'geard' which means fence, enclosure or courtyard but so much has changed from the medieval times when gardens were enclosed refuges from a hostile world. Now gardening vocabulary includes terms like 'borrow the view from the surrounding countryside' and 'naturalistic gardening'

£3 for LAHS members & £5 for non-members

Refreshments will be available

www.lahortsoc.co.uk